RULES AND REGULATIONS of the Competition for Targi Kielce Medals and Distinctions at the 8th Gas Engineering Fair EXPO-GAS 2015

I. Competition organiser

The Competition is organised by Targi Kielce and the Chamber of Natural Gas Industry (also hereinafter referred to as IGG)

II. Competition objective.

The Competition objective is to promote the best products showcased at the 8th Gas Engineering Fair EXPO-GAS held on 22nd and 23rd April 2015 in Kielce

III. Competition entry requirements

1. The Competition is open for each company registered as a participant at the Gas Engineering Fair EXPO-GAS held in Kielce and has paid in the Competition processing fee of 700 PLN net for each products entered into the Competition. Raiffeisen Bank Polska S.A. PL 22 1750 1110 0000 0000 0568 3537 Swift: RCBWPLPW

2. A product enters the competition on condition that the Competition Entry Form, as specified in the template attached to this Rules and Regulations is delivered to the Targi Kielce seat no later than 17.04.2015 at 12.00. Each exhibitor may enter an unlimited number of products into the competition.

3. The product which has been registered to take part in the Competition is to be displayed at the exhibition stand of the Company which has registered the product and the product is to be labelled "The product takes part in the Competition". Product models, miniatures, mock-ups, photographs cannot enter the Competition.

4. Competition registration is deemed to signify the Company's consent to use the materials and images provided for the Competition purposes in Targi Kielce's and IGG's publications as well as in publications of the media which cooperate with the above mentioned.

IV. Categories of product which can be registered for the Competition.

- Gas exploration and production equipment
- Gas transfer and storage appliances
- Measurement equipment and instruments
- Control instruments
- Appliances and elements for gas distribution system construction
- Equipment for new gas applications
- Other

V. Appraisal criteria and grading scale.

The Jury Panel will assess the products registered for the Competition in respect of the following criteria:

- Usefulness and practical values,

- Application of cutting-edge solutions,
- Environment protection aspects,
- Maintenance and service friendly qualities,
- Physical characteristics and aesthetics,

Jury may establish additional assessment criteria.

VI. Jury Panel.

1. The Jury Panel is appointed by Targi Kielce and the Chamber of the Natural Gas Industry.

2. The Jury Panel proceedings are chaired by the chair-person selected from among the Panel members, Targi Kielce assumes the responsibility to provide secretarial and office services.

3. Targi Kielce in conjunction with IGG may appoint experts supposed to issue experts' opinions on specific products in particular Competition categories; the experts can also participate in Jury Panel proceedings in an advisory capacity.

4. The Jury Panel sessions will be held on 22nd and 23rd April 2015 at 1 p.m..

5. All Jury Panel's materials and proceedings are of confidential nature and shall not be disclosed to any third party.

6. The Jury Panel may decide not to consider a particular product if appropriate documentation is not available or the assessment and appraisal require prolonged examination and/or specialised tests.

7. Candidates for Medals and Distinctions in each particular Competition category are put to the vote and thus selected at the Jury Panel's session held on 23rd April 2015. Minutes are kept at every Jury Panel's session.

8. Results will be announced and the Medals and Distinction will be presented at the Evening Awarding Ceremony held on 23rd April 2015.

VII. Awards.

1. The Targi Kielce Medal is the main award in each category. Distinctions are presented in the form of diplomas presented by Targi Kielce – the Competition organisers.

2. The Jury Panel reserves the right to present more than one Medal or Distinction in a particular category.

3. In justified cases the Jury Panel reserves the right to present a greater number of Medals and Distinction than the number of categories.